

1920

December

Sun. Dec. 7

Dull, riddling cold. Frost last night. Rowand was at other place, <sup>he</sup> put some implements & corn inside here. Uncle Alfred was here. Papa was not well the last few days. Lloyd Ferguson had an operation on Monday for appendicitis. I was at Uncle Alfred's. Papa got 2 books from the boys for ~~his birthday~~ "Memoirs of ~~the~~ the Life of William Colonel Hutchinson by his Widow Lucy" & "The Life of Wm. Carey" by Geo. Smith.

Wed. 8

Hard frost last night, Dull then bright. Cold wind. Rowand took chop to P.E. after dinner.

Thur. 9

Dull in the morning, bright after dinner. A hard frost last night. Uncle Alfred was here. Rowand took a load of wood to Bock's & got his grist home. Noble was home for dinner. He was doing odd jobs too, colder Wed. & to-day than lately.

Fri. 10

Dull. Snowed & drizzled a little. Warmer. Noble was home. He & Rowand were doing odd jobs & were working in the bush. Oliver Geddes is here.

Sat. 11

Dull mostly. Papa & Mamma were in P.E. Rowand was cleaning pens at the store & Edgar helped him to fix the pump. Uncle Alfred & Jessie were here. Jessie got home last night. Noble was in P.E. with grist from other place.