

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 14, 1870.

Our first snow storm came this forenoon but it melted as fast as it fell or nearly so.

We have not been able to work out any but have been working in the barn husking corn &c.

I commenced a letter to Frank Springs this morning. I might I have been away on school business down to Smiths. We finished making out the agreement with Godliness with contentment is great gain. As says the Word of God and the Christian can prove it at every turn of life.

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 15, 1870.

Charley has got to ploughing again today. He finished up another field this morning next to the road. This makes about twenty five acres in all that we have got done.

I have been being doing chores around

I have constant need of crying out in the words of the Canaanish woman, "Lord, help me!" These words of Christ are true indeed. "With out me ye can do nothing." But the prayers of the righteous avail much. Thank God, He hears my prayers daily.
