

June, 1929.

21 Friday. Fair and cooler.
The men were plowing and drawing manure.

22 Saturday. Fair and quite warm. Walter went to Elmira this morning. They were at the same old jobs again. Noah Miller and Jack Miller visited them tonight.

23 Sunday. Hot and sultry.
Stanley Gorel visited Walter this morning. This p.m. we went up to Grandpa Krauter's and stayed for tea. Lincoln Weavers were there also Marie, Albert & Alice. Tonight we had visitors - Mr. and Mrs.
Chas. Hilliard and Jim Kirkfield.

24 Monday. Fair and warm.
Ella. Thunderstorms and showers around 6 p.m. Ella did some hoeing and transplanting in the garden.
The men were at the manure and plowing again. Menno Hahn & W. Gamble two high pressure salesmen entertained (?) us tonight. Vernon went to League
