

November, 1930

10 Monday. Cloudy & not so cold.
Walter Adler left after breakfast and Willard went home today.
We took Grandpa & Grandma ^{Werner} along and spent Thanksgiving Day at Colson Jefferson's in Kitchener and Ella is staying for a few days.

11 Tuesday. Cloudy & mild.
Ella called at Frank Hamel's and had her tea at Chas. Koepke's.
Vernon plowed all day and Walter called at Schneider's & Lynch's this p.m.

12 Wednesday. Cloudy & mild.
Ella spent the day at Lincoln Weaver's in Waterloo. Vernon plowed and Walter butchered at Allen Wagner's. John Stange and Emerson spent the evening here.

13 Thursday. Foggy & mild.
Ella spent the day at Albert Scheifele's.
Vernon plowed and Walter went to Geiger's sale at Floradale this p.m.
He killed a cattle head for Eruch
Schneider tonight.