

June, 1930

22 Sunday. Fine day. Grandpa Maurer came up this morning and we took him and Mr. & Mrs. Noah Miller along and went over to Ferris to see Nick Hoffer at the Hospital. We had our dinner at Noah's and went to church & P. S. this afternoon. Tonight we did up our chores and spent the evening at Charlie Koepke's.

23 Monday. Hot and sultry. Thunderstorms and rain tonight. Ella did the washing and picked a few strawberries in Schwindt's bush. The men finished covering turnips. John Bowman was here for dinner. Callers - J. G. Horst, Sam Horst.

24 Tuesday. Drearly morning. Thunderstorms & rain during the night. Cleared up fine this afternoon. Walter went to Elmira this morning. They were cutting thistles this P. M. We all went to the Presbyterian Garden Party at Alma tonight. Bob Wilson & Co. were the entertainers.