

Friday November 17th

We killed the squealing pig this morning just did chores this afternoon Bill Donald was in to ask Dads Cuck to perform at the opening concert of the new Shands school house. I went down town to night to attend the meeting of the club that Clark told me but found that they could not get quack called it off. I called on Cousin Clara, Mary Mrs. Moon (Harry was in bed) and Auntie. I got my horn. Nice day but cold to night.

Saturday November 18th

Frank and I went down with the sleighs and got the rest of the locust tree at Auntie. This afternoon Frank went down and did some odd job for Auntie and went down again to night. I washed the name of the mail box and painted it (the box) fresh with aluminum enamel. Also Jenison was after a run. Soft to day.

Sunday November 19th

Frank and I went to Sunday school & church. Enah drove down to church. Dick's cold too bad to come over. Dad. went down to see him. I went down town to night saw Mary for a little while. Essie went to church and then went up to Dubois. Hauled all day snows nearly gone

Monday November 20th

Dad. plowed all day. Frank was down at Auntie's most of the day doing odd jobs. I did chores this morning and this afternoon painted the name on one side of the mail box. Enah drove down town this afternoon. The yearling hens have started laying. Much milder

Tuesday November 21st

Dad. and the baby were down at Auntie's all morning hatching up the house I finished painting the mail box. Dad. plowed this afternoon Frank & I fixed the barnyard fence. Frank Enah & I went down to hear Mr. Giddings lecture on Malay in the Sunday school to night. Mild but freezing hard to night.

Wednesday November 22nd

Frank and I went down to the factory this morning for the butter milk. This afternoon he and Dad. moved some of the hay stack into the barn and I cleaned up around the wood shed. Jack Martin came over and picked out six cockles. Enah went down town to tea & choir practice and I went down after her. Much milder to night
