

after-dinner. Did some short-hand.
Duncan was up as usual & we played seven up.

Saturday
Feb. 5th Fine mild day. Took some letters.
Went-down for meat & got some more letters - wrote them. Charles went to Mr. Cairns' funeral after dinner.
(Expected Mr. Iner for dinner as Mrs.
Iner away but he could not come.)
I took Charles' golf Brief bag down for me and got the mail. Mrs. Ryan's husband sentenced to 18 months at Birnash. Later in the afternoon I went-down to Public Library for a book. Charles went-out for walk in the evening. Harold Gibson was here in the evening getting some help with an essay on
"The League of Nations". Wrote to Dorothy.

Sunday
Feb. 6th Had a horrid sore throat all night &
a wretched cold this morning. Just thought I was free of the one I had had for 3 months? Went to Church in the morning
