

May, 1928

17 Thursday. Heavy rain last night. Dull drizzly day. Walter shipped hogs at Elmira. Rachel & Ella papered the bedroom this afternoon and since Rachel were here for supper. Vernon plowed this afternoon.

18 Friday. Dull misty morn. Cleared up this p.m. Dan Martin and Milton Glebe were here all day and put the metal ceiling up in the kitchen. Mr. & Mrs. Wesley Miller spent the evening here.

19 Saturday. Dull & showery. The men plowed this forenoon. This afternoon Walter took a load of grit to Floradale. Vernon took a cow down to Herman Zeigler's and had his supper at Grandpa Maurice's. Charles Killiard came up for some potatoes and was here for tea.