

Manufacturing place stopped about half an hour and looked around for a big bag of peanuts for 25¢. Next town was Montonsville about 5 mile named after an Indian Ancha Monton, guide & interpreter next place Muncy. Seems to be all Indian names here.
making better time here a grand road, nearly straight, and good and wide. arrived at Sunbury Pa. 42 miles from Wmport at 5:30 P.M. after dark hard to find a place to stay in a strange place after dark. stayed at a Tourist place the room was full of stale tobacco smoke. they burnt mense in the room while we were out to supper, it made some mixture of smells. Room cost us $4.00 Car Storage $1.00 Bot Cards & Stamps - 30¢ we both had steaks for supper, but not as good one as the last, cost for supper $1.50. Sunbury seems to be a dirty smoky place. I guess the name means, the sun buried in smoke seems to be a Railroad Junction or Divisional Point. dozens of trains in the yards along the Susquehanna River the largest river we have seen yet.
