

Nov 2 Trimming out Black berry bushes, weather cool

Nov 7 Started going to market. some time of the year to start it was not very good.

Nov 9th was to market again very slow market, rained, in the morning, also saw the Big Victory Bond Parade.

Nov 5 started unloading crates got 245 from Waystaffe at 15¢ each

Nov 11th. Good news this am.
War ended at 6 o'clock this morning.

Nov 16th have been going to market weather is mild but markets is very slow

Nov 21 was at market again it is very slow.

Nov 22 Weather turning cooler had a few snow flurries today for the first this year.

Nov 27th weather fine + mild unloading first car of manure this fall. cut the last of the Carliblooms about 10 boxes worth about $150 a box.

Nov 28 went to market with the car today, was home early. started to rain at noon.

Nov 29. Unloading car of Hay 23590 lbs. at  $\frac{8}{25}$  per ton apl \$27.10 freight, nearly \$300 for the car.

Nov 30 Turning very cold high wind and some snow flurries.