April THURSDAY 24 1919

rained hard all day Joe McElroy and I papered all day in the front room of the old house. Snowed hard in the evening. around home.

April FRIDAY 25 1919

Blustry day. snowed a little all day I finished up the papering in the front room in the forenoon. Mamie scrubbed the floor in the afternoon and I minded the Children. Henery came down from Hungtow this afternoon over to store in evening