

Ther.

WED. NOV. 9, 1898

Wea.

James McCulloch (my nephew) and W. Mundell came back last night, and it is well for them for this has been a wet stormy day, snow and rain. It is very disagreeable, I was doing some mending today, and I started to fix over my dress sleeves

Ther.

THURSDAY 10

Wea.

This is another stormy day, they are drawing the cheese away from the factory today, this is the last shipping for this year, it has snowed all day, after dinner I cut out a shirt for W. Lumber and it partly done