

Friday October 6th

Just as we were going out to work this morning (late) Sam Thompson came along to look at the ram lamb so I went back with him. He was here till nearly noon just visiting but I managed to sell him the old ram for fifteen dollars. Dad went out and finished digging the corner post hole. Just before dinner we took the team and wagon out and moved over platform up to the corner. Right after dinner I took the team over to Ben Dwyer and borrowed his stone boat and we got the pickle barrel (in which we discovered a highly scented piece of corn beef) up out of the cellar filled it with water and hauled it to the cross roads corner on the stone boat. We then had to cut an iron gas pipe and a quarter inch rod which looks as if it had been a hoop for a vat and all of which we got down at Auntie's place under the barn yesterday for reinforcement. All of this took time and so it was quite late in the afternoon when we got started to build over post and also quite late in the evening when we finished it and much later by the time we got the chores done and had to. Dad and the baby went back after the cows but it was dark and they were in the woods in some place and he couldn't find them so let them go. Eulah went down town this afternoon and stayed down to tea so she could go to choir practice to-night. I drove down after her about nine thirty and found her at Auntie's. We drove home around by the post and I loosened the nuts on the mould. Nice day

Saturday October 7th

Niel Elliott came in this morning and gave Dad $4.50 for Spotty and I had to take her down to the car right after breakfast. Dad asked him sixty feet the cattle market has become glutted the last few days. I was down there till nearly eleven and then had to take Eljitha up to Sam Thompson's. We had an awful time with her and I didn't get back till one o'clock. Dad dug the hole for the brace post this morning and this afternoon we put the post in and got it done by six o'clock. It has been a very nice day

Sunday October 8th

We all went to church this morning as it was
