

January, 1930

29 Wednesday. Cold and clear.

Walter took a load of turnips to Elmira this afternoon. Ella spent the afternoon with Ella Miller and helped her cut quilt patches.

30 Thursday. Clear and cold.

Wonderful winter's day. We were butchering a big pig for Henry Ziegler today.

Eber Stickney died very suddenly at his home in Alma this afternoon.

31 Friday. Cold. Rather stormy.

Walter took a load of turnips to Alma this afternoon. Walter Adler was here for supper and he and Vernon went to the League social at Noah Miller's tonight. Callers were - Henry Ziegler, Laudwell Bolender and Kenneth Atkinson