

Monday April 10, 1922

I delivered mail on the whole route with Dick.

The people are starting seeding. The day was fine and the roads are good except in a few places.

Tuesday April 11, 1922

I delivered to the Bay and round the Townline with Dick and Kent took home oats from Gordon's and delivered mail round by the Club. Mr. English took a load of hay from Parrish's place.

It rained last night and at times during the day, so that the day was very disagreeable with thunder and rain.

Wednesday April 12, 1922

I delivered mail on the Club part with Dick. Kent delivered to the Bay and round the Townline with Lloyd and George. Charlie and Iots came here on the 5.45 and Charlie and Iots went back to Chatham when the car returned.
