

Friday Feb. 11, 1921.

I delivered mail on the whole route with Queen and Dick.

Before I went on the mail I called up Mabel and she said her mother was very low and when I was home for dinner she called me and said her mother had died about 1 o'clock. They came home with the casket on the 5 p.m. car.

The day was fine and not very cold and the roads are good.

Saturday Feb. 12, 1921.

I delivered mail on the whole route with Queen and Dick.

Maudie and Charlie went to Chatham. Mr. English took the rough box down to the Graveyard in the afternoon.

The day was fine and the roads good.

Bought groceries at Kearns 85 cts.

Sunday Feb. 13, 1921.

I went to Church in the morning. Several visitors called in during the day. The day was fine and the weather was mild.
