

October 1930

1 Wednesday. Fine day.

Ella cleaned the cellar and wash-house at her mother's and did some work in the garden. Walter finished drawing manures and Vernon plowed.

2 Thursday. Cloudy & cool.

Walter came up to Krauter's for Ella and was there for tea.

3 Friday. Fair and cool.

Walter took a load of chopping to Floradale and had his dinner at Charles Bergman's. They brought in a load of mangels today.

4 Saturday. Lovely day.

Walter & Vernon went to Elmira this morning. This afternoon they finished the mangels and pulled and brought in 4 loads.

The R-101, a British dirigible exploded and burnt while on a flight to India, over Beauvais, France tonight. 48 men were killed.
