

MONDAY, JULY 11, 1870.

It's almost finished getting the
own land this morning before the rain came on. Since the rain commenced there
has been a vast amt.
of water fallen. I went out to Doves this morning after a girl
of whom we heard last night. The Lord has prospered me in this matter and has sent me a servant without whom it is almost impossible to do.

We have been getting ready for the harvest
this afternoon.

My heart is still happy in Jesus, and I feel that my life is truly a sacrifice to Him.

TUESDAY, JULY 12, 1870.

The rain yesterday
has made the ground
very wet. We have had to leave our paying and to day we have been cutting
whistles.

Another day has past
with its trials and trials.
The Lord has been with me to day, and my soul
has been laughing in Him.
Surely in His presence
there is fullness of joy,
and pleasures for ever more. Besides there is in my soul such a
marvellous feeling of security from all the
blightingills of life,
when my trust is
stayed in Him.
Oh then here my rest shall be close to thy bleeding side.
