

Broton May 1887

Sun May 15th Clear and hot in the middle of the day Mon May 16th Clear and hot. we took the Steers to Florence this fore noon. that I bargained too Henry Cook last week. after noon I was digging in the garden. Walter was spreading manure.

Tue May 17th Cloudy and cool. I was planting potatoes part of the day, and part repairing fence. Walter spreading manure.

Wed May 18th Clear and cool the fore part of the day, latter part hot. we plow'd the young Orchard this fore noon. I commenced to plant it this after noon. Mr Skinner shove the sheep to day.

Thu May 19th Clear and hot most of the day. I finished planting corn. this fore noon. was repairing fence the rest of the day. Walter was drawing rails the fore part of the day, after noon took a ~~load~~ load of wheat to Dresden for John W. Snary.

Broton May 1887

Fri May 20th Clear and very hot most of the day, quite cool. this morning. I went to Dresden for Veterinary for the young mare. we got the foal away all right.
I expected it would be dead. after noon finished planting potatoes. the Thermometer Reg. 94 deg in the shade this after noon.

Sat May 21st Clear and very hot the same as yesterday. we were repairing fences.
Bilton brought up Aberdeen Duke and we ^{once} trimmed his feet this afternoon.

Sun May 22nd Clear and hot.

Mon May 23rd Clear most of the day and hot.
Some thunder this Evening. we were dipping the Lambs this fore noon. after noon was repairing fence

Tue May 24th Cloudy Showers morning and evening we cleaned up a load of wheat in the morning, the rest of the day drawing out manure.