

Jan 4th 1893.

Wed. 4.

Druggist S.S. with family
to night

Another very cold day Thermometer 12° below, bright and clear during the forenoon, clouding over in the afternoon sunny very damp and cold, a light snow fell during the night

Thurs 5

Beautiful today Thermometer 10° below zero. Lovely winter weather

Fri. 6.

Lovely Bright Sunshiny Day
Zero weather, but very fine

Sat. 7.

Another most magnificent day a little below zero Melissa Gusta and myself took the train for Napoleon and spent the day at Jas.
Warner Sr. we had a lovely visit, returning on the five o'clock train, (note to Jas Lane - Shuffler's

Jan 8th 1893

Sun 8.

Another lovely day a little below zero, but not uncomfortably cold. Gusta and myself attended the Church Services tonight Rev Mr B, Williams preached a most beautiful sermon from the Psalms, lovely moon light night

Mon. 9.

Storming this morning very hard and continuing all all day long, fall of snow about 5 inches. There is about 15 inches of snow on the ground at present

Tue. 10.

Lovely Bright day but very cold Thermometer at 10° below zero in the morning. This evening we were honored with the presence of Mr. Latwin and sister Blanch, they favored us with violin and organ music