

22 Marjorie was going to go to Chippewa for Miss Hodell when Arthur went, but she did not come he done our trawling. Marjorie was glad to go as she had her hands full of work, reamed the most of the night. Will got home at 10 o'clock Sun 11 Drieling rain, the little turkeys coming out 15 out of 20 Donald Sharp came after Marjorie water laying all over the ground thro' deep Sun 12 Terrible black clouds at times & sprinkled rain at times towards night. It cleared up nice & bright Paul fixed a floor on the turkey pen & I got them in. Paul opened one egg that was left over & it had a turkey with four eggs on. I churned & washed the churn Marjorie got the meals all day first day of school after the teachers fathers death Hatties birthday celebrating at washing the bug off a thunder storm came up at night. not bad here but the wind on 20 years at Olawa struck the Palawan Building. Hattie was over on the evening & stayed ^{night} all Tue 13 I churned have hard work to do, they my hand is so bad. Paul swept & dusted the school house, the soldiers went to camp ^{very} hot & roads muddy. Paul fixed the bottom of the May on, worked the butter Wed 14 Marjorie & Paul went to Drummondville had 9 1/2 lbs butter @ 12 1/2 qd eggs @ 18 qd the Linscomb & got @ 75 qd @ 2. 25⁰⁰. Hattie's her father & mother went to town the got her new hat - dreadful look & dropped off a lot of my clothes & washed all had the little turkeys out to get over city but she heat is almost too much for them. they have had bad luck with theirs only 5 out of 23 eggs one of them died. Fox went to Golden Thurs 15 dreadful hot - just smells out. I churned the butter left at much had to tend it to the cellar got ready to work the little turkey nearly over come by the heat. I got them up at noon & let them out at four Paul went up after Marjorie she went after supper to George Hexmers. Tom McKeown & Hides later what was the matter of his snore the bees swarmed the big Friday 16 thundering before we got up & rained most of the day Marjorie was going over the river only on account of the rain. I churned. Paul went to Marston Dells after beans came back swept the school house. the bees swarmed after 4 o'clock Sat 17 Arthur & I picked the hard shelled bugs out of the potatoes & Paul finished them when he came from guarding the cows he had a mass of straw berries we had them for dinner. Marjorie cleared up the front room & cleaned the kitchen Paul went to Chippewa after 7 o'clock got home after Ten had 4 lbs butter in a crock @ 12 1/2 qd 8 one dozen eggs @ 18 qd 3 loose bread @ 1 1/2 lb @ 4 coal oil 10 1/2 super 25 cakes 13 the bees that swarmed yesterday came out again & Paul & Arthur could not get them in stay & they went Paul did not like to have them stay & did not care
