

Wednesday March 22, 1922.

I delivered mail to the Bay and round the Townline and Kent delivered on the Club part with the Colts Lloyd and George with the front Bob of the sleigh.

after dinner Kent went over to W.C. Gordons and got 12 bags of oats = 20 ^{1/2} bushels @ 40¢ = $10.00

The day was fine but the roads were bad and were banked with snow in some places.

Thursday March 23, 1922.

I delivered to the Bay and round the Townline and Kent delivered to the Club and back with the Colts Lloyd and George and the buggy. after coming home Kent repacked the gas pipes in the swale, John and I helped him.

The day was fine but the roads were very bad.

Wednesday May 31, 1922. see index page 144

Kent worked at putting a fence across the swale for a pig pasture. I helped him. Charlie Giles took 30 bags of oats here which contained 73 bush + 5 lbs = $35.85
