

Jan. 17.

Tuesday 17.

Sun shone some today. Melba and I have quilted all day.

Wednesday 18.

A very nice day. Sun really shone. We washed but they did not get dry. Asmond and Maud came home for supper. Harry came down this afternoon. Dad drew manure.

Thursday 19.

A terrible windy, rainy day. The piano tuner came this morning and took the works to London. We finished my red quilt. Hurray.

Friday 20.

Very cold all night and all day. Blustry and a little snow. Harry was down and took Melba down to Sparta where they played for the opening of the continuation school. Asmond brought Maud home.
