

and Jack met us there? 9 A-m board the 'Ahmac' and came on to Port Sandfield where Nell and Ding met us with the new disappearing propeller boat and brought us on to Swandell.
Beautifully situated and very comfortable.
After dinner Nell, Ding, Frances and I went for a run to Port Sandfield for the mail and a spin into Lake Joseph.
Dorothy being tired went to bed early.

July 21st Beautiful day. Wonderful view down the Saturday Lake. Getting unpacked. Wrote a letter to mother. Was down to Pt. Sandfield in the boat and out for a sail later. Dorothy slipped and sprained her ankle. Went down to the sand beach in the afternoon and through the little wharf there which Dick is thinking of renting.

July 22nd Charles, Jack, Clare, Frances and Ding went Sunday to church at the Elgin House while Dorothy,
