

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 15, 1870.

We are at our
manure hauling still.
I filled the Cuck for me this morning and went to Dover afterwards after Mary Jane.
The roads are very
muddy.

Though my desire
continually is to lead a holy life yet while I would do good evil
is present with me.
I am sometimes discouraged but O there is an all sufficiency
of grace for all my needs. What a joy!
It is my refuge
from the storms and
ills of life. My experience to day has been variable and unsatisfactory.

THURSDAY, JUNE 16, 1870.

Our manure hauling
still progresses slowly.
I have been working
myself at noon
most of the time. But as we have had visitors,
Mrs. Leving and Mrs.
Hall, my time was partially taken up in their Company.

"Offer unto God thanksgiving and pray that ever
unto the most High
And call upon me in the day of trouble,
I will deliver thee,
and thou shalt glorify Me". To do this Commandment is my heart's desire in all things for His precepts are my delight.
