

|    | John Luman | John Luman | John Luman | John Luman | John Luman | John Luman | John Luman | John Luman | John Luman |
|----|------------|------------|------------|------------|------------|------------|------------|------------|------------|
| 1  |            |            |            |            |            |            |            |            |            |
| 2  |            |            |            |            |            |            |            |            |            |
| 3  |            |            |            |            |            |            |            |            |            |
| 4  |            |            |            |            |            |            |            |            |            |
| 5  |            |            |            |            |            |            |            |            |            |
| 6  |            |            |            |            |            |            |            |            |            |
| 7  |            |            |            |            |            |            |            |            |            |
| 8  |            |            |            |            |            |            |            |            |            |
| 9  |            |            |            |            |            |            |            |            |            |
| 10 |            |            |            |            |            |            |            |            |            |
| 11 |            |            |            |            |            |            |            |            |            |
| 12 |            |            |            |            |            |            |            |            |            |
| 13 |            |            |            |            |            |            |            |            |            |
| 14 |            |            |            |            |            |            |            |            |            |
| 15 |            |            |            |            |            |            |            |            |            |
| 16 |            |            |            |            |            |            |            |            |            |
| 17 |            |            |            |            |            |            |            |            |            |
| 18 |            |            |            |            |            |            |            |            |            |
| 19 |            |            |            |            |            |            |            |            |            |
| 20 |            |            |            |            |            |            |            |            |            |
| 21 |            |            |            |            |            |            |            |            |            |
| 22 |            |            |            |            |            |            |            |            |            |
| 23 |            |            |            |            |            |            |            |            |            |
| 24 |            |            |            |            |            |            |            |            |            |

1932
 Sat Dec 10
 weather - cloudy, cold east wind.
 men worked at trees, Douglas, Marion, went to Markham a.m. Della went to practice in p.m. then went down again home at night with Norm.
 Sun Dec 11
 weather - cloudy, cold east wind snow at night.
 Marion & I went to church with Norm, spent evening at home.
 Mon Dec 12
 Bob & Jean 4th wedding day.
 weather - cold & stormy.
 men loaded old gentleman into truck Pat & Les took him to city
 John came at 10 a.m. with Mother for girls & I to go up Margaret's had dinner & he left about 2 p.m. for home. men chored. Della practice church night.
 Tues Dec 13
 weather - very cold S.W. wind.
 men drew wood & Doug got saw at Calvuts. Douglas stove night & h home.
 Wed Dec 14
 weather - still cold S.W. wind.
 men sawed wood. Della practice in p.m. & she Norm. choir practice at night Douglas left 4 p.m. for Marion arrived about 5 & we all left at 9:30 for home.
 Thurs Dec 15
 weather - very cold north wind.
 men carried wood into woodshed in a.m. Norm attended hunt club banquet with Will Kodick. I went with Coat & Mr Hoppe to Mabel Stewart's pin meeting not many out. Della kept Kiddies.
 Fri Dec 16
 weather - Bright & not so cold.
 Doug had day off & back for chores, Norm to city, Della to practice at