

SATURDAY, JUNE 25, 1870.

I commenced keying
to day. Had one of the balls this morning and find it a great improvement on the
St. George machine.
Charley went to help Eldale get up
his hay this afternoon. I cut most of the field by Brown
to day.

My devotional exercises to day have been delightful as well as profitable.
The cloud that almost obscured the Sun of righteousness from my view at the beginning of the week
has now quite past
away & I am biding
under the shadow ^{with joy} of the cross.

SUNDAY, JUNE 26, 1870.

Our dear Bro. Eu-
man preached to us
this afternoon. Most fortunately there was a small congregation
and he had almost
to preach to a house
full of emptiness.
The class-meeting was good although very small. Had considerable liberty by the grace of God, in talking to my dear
fellow class-mates.
I went out to Dover
to night to meeting
after service, two young ladies came down with me -
Miss Jessie Scott &
Miss Annie Douglas.
They are going with
me to morrow.
