

Sunday June 4th

Dick and I walked into Sunday school this morning and were about 10 minutes late. I drove back after church with Daddy and Enah who drove Joe and Ginger into church.

This afternoon it looked like rain and I walked in to Stahy's. It then cleared off and I walked down to the dock and found Dick talking to Art. Smith, Joe and Greenburg. Then Murray and ~~Ally~~ Dell came along in Pelly's row boat and Art. Smith and Grand <sup>and</sup> ~~buy~~ got in and we went out in the lake. Then we came up and I walked up town and then went down to Aunty Francis for tea.

After tea I went up to church and then went for a little walk with Murray but it looked very stormy (and is thunder now) that I came home. Bill was here when I arrived.

Ruby and Harry Battersby have gone up to Billington's to-day. They did not say what for

Monday June 15th

Got up with much discomfort being very sleepy this morning a little after six.

I sawed some wood before breakfast and a little afterwards.

We hauled Joe and Ginger up to the wagon and went down town and got all the stuff out of Enah's & Daddy's room which took us all the morning as we had to take up the carpet. Dick drove down with us and took his dinner to school as it was too muddy to ride his wheel.

When we got back Bill was working spreading the manure he hauled out Saturday and it was too wet around the manure pile to haul out any more and any way Faulkner had come and taken his wagon.

Bill Donald was ploughing and Davie was having a good time in
