Russ Hartlge raising. I baked bread had it baked at 1 o'clock. I wrote to Mrs Kent Thurs 13. I mended Pauls pants the first thing in the morning so he could go to James Wells & see how Mrs Smith was & see about hay she calls out starving on the field nothing but marsh grass or rushes heavy frosts stand the grass. However Mr James & all was kind enough to give us a load & have Bills Montague draw it for us after Paul went away I went to work & got out everything out of the woodhouse & cleared it up such nice something strong wind it did the things good when Paul came home he helped to get barrels out of the house on the woodhouse so I could turn around everything crowded together. Hamme & her mother over 14 swept the front room Friday 14 snowing & thawing at fast. as it comes down. coming from the north east & disagreeable if the cattle had no feed such a day it would be hard on them. I washed out some things but a bad day I had to put a line on the veranda Paul went to Montague after apples Sat 15 Terrible cold. I scrubbed the back kitchen after I swept it good. I scrubbed the stove, swept, dusted & cleaned the kitchen blackened the stove made two pies & ginger cake
