

Thursday Jan. 19, 1922.

Kent delivered on the first part.
and I delivered on the second.

Mary Kemp was here when I got back; she was down at Peterboro.
She went down there with Johnny on Tuesday and stayed over here on her way home, she is staying here till tomorrow.

The forenoon was mild but it became cold in the evening.

The roads are very good.

Friday January 20, 1922.

Kent delivered on the Bay Part and I delivered on the Clyth.

Bruce worked for S. Jackson.

The day was fine.

The roads are good.

Saturday January 21, 1922.

I went to Chatham on the return of the mail car and attended to ditchers - Browning, P. Handson Herb. Lewis &c and came home on the 9.30

The day was very fine
