

Sept 14th 1892.

Wed. 14. fine and bright but cold and windy, wind still howling again tonight Thurs 15. lovely day fine and warm wind still high a very heavy shower in the about 10 o'clock tonight it was of short duration but it did elope every previous rain this season for force

Fri. 16. lovely day, wind very high attended a Lecture given by Mr Amos Parent a French Canadian, Catholic, convert at the age of fourteen. So the Protestant faith, he is now about 70 years of age he is supposed to be the first one to turn in Canada, he was very interesting, cold tonight

Sept 17th 1892.

Sat. 17. most beautiful day wind not so high as yesterday made five cheese for the Worlds Columbian Exhibition at Chicago, 1893. for Lane assisting, we struck it very good we think, tonight we drove to town (Kingston) Sun. 18. lovely and fine all day, but windy quite warm in the evening with appearance of rain, at about 10 o'clock it began lightning, with a little thunder and a few dashes of rain, was at Mr McLeod's for tea tonight

Mon. 19. Early this morning a heavy thunder storm passed over, being about 3 o'clock fine during the day although gloomy looking in the morning, at the ocean for sea
