

FRIDAY, MAY 24, 1872.

Clear and cool. Not much of a "Celebration". The Company called out during the afternoon for "Target Practice" came out about as usual "Eight on the List".

On Lord Ripon's Conversion to "Rome"

"From an English paper"

- Punch -

Lord Ripon's sudden change of Creed does not, we own astonish us, "Extremes will meet" we hardly need the Proverb to admonish us, "That Romanism is just the thing to win a new believer," 'tis one so famed for furthering the "Errors of Geneva"
