

July, 1930.

30 Wednesday. Wonderful day. Walter started cutting wheat but the binder isn't working very well. The boys were stooking. Ella was picking berries in Reints bush this afternoon. Callers were - Mrs. Allen Wagner and Earl Miller.

31 Thursday. Another lovely day. Walter cut some more wheat and Vernon stoked. Peter Martin of Hawkesville moved here with his white washing outfit today and is doing the stables.

There have been a few accidents this week. On Tuesday while Seth Martin was cutting wheat he cut off his 4 year old boys leg with the binder.

On Wednesday, David Martin's horse ran over one of their little boys and killed him instantly.

Milford son of Herb Schneider at Heidelberg died following an operation for appendicitis.
