

September, 1929.

21 Saturday. Fine clear cool day. Walter took a load of grain to Alma this morning. This p.m. we all went to the School Fair at Goldstone.

Oscar Schierhottz visited Walter tonight

22 Sunday. Lovely cool day. We all went to S.S. and church this morning and Walter and Ella went to Waterloo and spent the day at Augus. Weber's. Tonight we went to Kitchener Mennonite church where Rev. Berstine gave a talk on his ^{out west} trip. Walter Adler spent the day with Vernon and they went to League tonight.

23 Monday. Fine day. Warmer. Vernon plowed this morning but felt sick and didn't do anything this p.m. Walter got some chop at Alma this p.m.

24 Tuesday. Warm day. The men took up the potatoes today. Ella did the washing this morning and worked in the garden this p.m.
