

Tuesday January 10, 1922.

Kent delivered to the Bay and round the Townline and I delivered on the Club past.

After coming home, Kent cut poles and took them home to make two extra stalls in the stable.

The day was fine and the roads are good.

Wednesday Jan. 11, 1922.

Kent delivered mail to the Bay and around the Townline and I delivered to the Club.

After dinner Kent and I worked at the stalls in the stable, we got up the frame.

Bruce and Ed. finished taking in the seed clover.

The day was fine and rather cold. And the roads are good.

Thursday January 12, 1922.

Kent and I delivered mail.

After delivering mail Phil and Kent worked at the two double stalls they have them nearly done.

It snowed a little last night and the day was very cold.
