

Wednesday Nov. 16, 1921.

I delivered mail with our Gip on the first part and started on the second part with Charlie's Gip but it got so dark with a cloudy mist that I couldn't see, as I had no way of fixing the lantern to the mail wagon, that I turned back half way between J. G. Ross's and McKenzie's Creek.

The day was cloudy and the roads are very bad.

Thursday Nov. 17, 1921.

I delivered with the two Gips.

The day was cloudy and the roads are rather bad.

Jack O'Mara is lying very low with Pneumonia today.

Friday Nov. 18, 1921.

I delivered mail with two Gips. Jack O'Mara was reported about the same as he was yesterday.

It rained last night so that the roads were wet but the wheels went through clean.

The day was cloudy but not cold.
