Sun 21 a grand day Marjorie & Paul went to church. Fanny here in tea. they went to Sawt Church. Both girls were here in the afternoon

Mon 22 Marjorie fell to mean she did not go to James Wells she had rheumatism. she could not do anything. I put out the beets & carrots & helped with 4 rows of potatoes they are pulling in their place.

Tue 23 I put on my flower bed box on the yard & my ashers in yesterday. got my hills of squash on after dinner we planted the seed of the potatoes 13 rows with beets Marjorie washed out some of her things & washed the front room windows

Wed 24 Holiday. big fire at Chippawa I swept & dusted the school house & fuel at it I was wounded all over working on the ground so much I slopping over. Paul is helping Will with his potatoes. he furrowed our ground yesterday. Marjorie has gone to James Wells & Fanny came home. Lucy had a calf Paul & I had a big fire getting her up in the barn. took the sacks out of the carpet & paper & the straw & paper out & sweep such a fine mossy every thing out of the room

Thur 25 I cleaned the floor & washed the wood work. Paul made a pen for the calf & guarded the cows & took up the pantry oil cloth & my carpet. started to rain on the night. Fanny ^{worked at home} comes & stays all night

Friday 26 rained all day nearly & poured on night the road is like a little lake in front of the barn. everything a a foot deep in water I put down the carpet & got the things back moving them so much I got tired of it. Fanny went yesterday to Whiston. Hattie went down to Chippawa & brought her home Sat 27 I papered the corner behind the house washed the curtain & window & scrubbed the kitchen floor where there was our carpet box so many little things that don't count
