

January 1986

25 Hector Mr Rae's wife is to be buried here tomorrow
This has been a fine day, cloudy in the morning but warm, about noon began to snow, cleared up at 3. Far and Neil Watson went to a social at Dundie, drove Dolly.

26 Turned cold about midnight - the wind very high Far did not get home until 6 o'clock, A.M. Pa & Jimmie went to meet the funeral, they got to the house a little before. The funeral started the wind was piercing cold, and now 9.30 P.M. the wind is very high.
We got the flour and bran of 3 1/2 bush of wheat on Tuesday, and I baked today got 2 1/2 lb butter ⁶⁰ 2 lb sugar 15. 2 loaves bread

27 Still cold West wind hardly any snow on.
The road Mercury 16 below zero I was to see Annie, got at Dan's 1/2 lb extract. 10c wood 10c blue vitrol 7. 11. at Willie's 1 spool red cotton thread 5

28 Sunday, nice day sunshine, but still cold wind
