

March, 1927.

3 Thursday. Clear, cold & windy Walter took Grandma Keauter down to Emerson's this morning and shipped hogs at Elmira. There was a church finances meeting here tonight and the following were here - Otto Miller, Enoch Schneider and Edwin Bender. Norman Miller came over and he and Vernon played crokinole. Com. Cullem called for his meat and sausage.

4 Friday. Fair. Not as cold as yesterday. Walter worked around the stables and Vernon was drawing manure. Noah Miller and Ruth were here for supper. Other callers - Leon and Eldon Waquer, Homer and Norman Henderson.

5 Saturday. Fine day. Walter took a load of chopping to Glendale and 2 cows to Norman Knicker's for the sale.
Vernon was drawing manure. Callers - Addison, Harvey & Lorne Reist, Clarence Farncombe and Noah Shoemaker
