

September, 1926

22 Wednesday. Drizzly day
Walter went to John Martin's funeral with Eph. Snyder's this morning. Aubrey was plowing & Grandma Krutter and Rachel Martin came here this p.m. and were here for tea and the night.

23 Thursday. Dull, drizzly & foggy Walter shipped hogs at Elmira, had his dinner at Norman Snyder's came home around 5 p.m. and went up to Creekbank. Talk about your busy men! Aubrey was drawing manure.

24 Friday. Sultry & cloudy.
Thunderstorms and heavy rains this afternoon. The men plowed and cleaned wheat.

25 Saturday. Cold, cloudy & showery.
The men were gadding both forenoon and afternoon.
