

July, 1929.

6 Saturday. Thunderstorms and showers. Walter butchered a big pig for Eph. Snyder here today. One of the roosters attacked little Albert and gave him two nasty gashes in his cheeks.

7 Sunday. Showery. Vernon went to S.S. and church this afternoon and to League tonight. Walter took Ellen, Marie and the children down to Grandpa Krauter's tonight.

8 Monday. Fine day. Walter got the new side delivery rake at the station at Alma this morning. John Welles of Elmira put it together this afternoon and was here for supper. Ella was picking berries in Schmitt's bush this afternoon. Mr. & Mrs. Earl Miller spent the evening here.
