

- Mon June 7. Fine and moderately warm. Mrs D. helped me make brown muslin, rained a little in eve. I called to pay Insurance. 35[¢].20 the rate raised to 1 ¹/₁₀ % and a reduction of 4.80 for lightning protection.
- Tues June 8. Starting to plough up roads and grade. it came a heavy rain at noon. a little thunder ground well soaked. Dr Mc Donald found dead.
- Wed June 9. Fine and moderately warm. I went to Toronto. Mr Horan died suddenly. at Miss Edey's in eve.
- Thur June 10. Fine and warmer. Sawm mower fixed. $1.00
- Fri June 11. Fine and bright and warm in Toronto picture Volga Boatmen. started to lay cement.
- Sat June 12. Rained gently most of the afternoon. Mrs D and I for a walk in evening very ^{Amie here.} damp.
- Sun June 13. Fine and warm rather sultry. At morning church. Mrs D. and I for a walk. Willie here for a while had tea. I went for a walk when he went home then for a walk with B. girls and Annie.
- Mon June 14. Raining most of day and about seven came a thunder storm and terrific rain for several hours and most all night. I went to Annie's as her Aunt Lizzie and Hamiltons there. men off the road most of day.
- Tue June 15. Fine and warmer started of cement at noon. I called at Mary Watsons in eve.