

September

THURSDAY, 22

1921

Will, Violet and George came to night - Putting up gutter in cow stables in morning. Then Jack started about ten to cultivate summer fallow. Brock fixed some fence on other place and put sheep back with young cattle.
Brock ploughing in second field this side of windmill.
Fine day but high wind.

FRIDAY, 23

Brock & Jack ploughing in second field back on other place.
Beautiful bright day.

SATURDAY, 24

Brock & Jack ploughing on other place. Mother up to Uncle Rich's and the boys in afternoon with Will & Violet. They left on six train.
We to town at night.
Beautiful warm day.

MEMORANDA