

I slept through most of the night but every now and again would wake up and hear the other fellows sawpaging around the fire and some time about two o'clock they all went over and raided Art Quamby's straw berry patch. I didn't know any thing about that till morning. So day I rolled the corn ground in the fore noon and had mangles this afternoon. Dad. Belle out and we cultivated them. John Wess. & Mrs.

Come. Come over for a visit so Dad. went up to see them and Frank and I finished cultivating. Ennis brother and her father & Adeline were over here for tea and I rode down with them after tea and went to hand practice. Mary went down to Aunt's for tea. and Chris. brought us both home in his new Dodge car.

Tuesday June 21st

I rode Frank's wheel out to Lloyd Cheyler's first thing this morning to ask him about the Fleming place. He gave me Enn's address and said it was still packed. When I came back Dad. and I hauled in a couple of jags of hay on the wagon box to feed up and then we went back to the woods and got a load of wood. This afternoon we hauled in Frank's alfalfa and Dad. went down to the mill with Charlie to look at Merle's horse which he thinks is foundered. Frank cut the hay on the corner field to day. So night I went with the land to a garden party at Nambis corner and Dad. entertained Mr. Johnson from Sir Edson Beck's place and they had a great waddle horse powwow.

Wednesday June 22nd

I went out right after breakfast and harrowed over the corn ground again with the big team and finished about eleven. I then cut a little lawn before dinner. All the rest of the family picked straw berries this morning and got 35 boxes. and Dad. got a bad attack of heart burn from leaning over and felt very miserable most of the day. Dick came over for dinner and he & I walked down after work and I went to paint some signs for Jim's. he didn't have any ready but I painted out the old one. I came home and helped milk and then Mary & I done Mexican dance with butter eggs & cream for Aunt's Alice. Frank drove down to the woods. I went for a swim. Kat & Mary.
