

Wednesday, July 10

Weather - lovely day rather cool at night

at men

add

to - Douglas took Laura & I over to Mcguay (all about 330 in afternoon, to help with getting ready for the Strawberry Festival. Keswick Institutes put on the play, ^{the old flig.} had a splendid crowd.
gate receipts about $160.00

17

Bonds for Public Officials

Thursday, July 11

Weather - fair warmer

Norman
Douglas
men

held in morning Will harrowed
summer follow.

Pat helped to look for white ducks
in morning.

found them down the bank.

Will, Norman, Douglas drew in four loads hay in afternoon.

Pat started cutting sweet clover
for silo in afternoon.

Laura brought Marian, baby, Doreen
and Marguerite up for a short visit.
(in John's car.)

Norman & I went down to Mcguay
to help clean up.

Douglas went to Richmond Hill for repairs.

Bonds to Cover Lost Securities