

November 10th over home this morning and Dad and I went in the wagon and I got a cider barrel at Dells got Dad's cider at Charlie Gunder's. Frank took over yesterday. In the afternoon we went down to the and got a load of blocks and took them down.

We saw Mrs. Lawrence on the street this morning.
My just come up for the day to visit all friends at Aunt's for dinner and went back at 4:30.
I walked home and got here about six and had home after tea. Much milder and very nice day.

day November 11th to town to-day. Aunt wanted us to get down in the Armistice Day service in the church but we did not. but got down about half past eleven. Mary in the afternoon and called on Cousin Bessie who a knitted sweaters. I went up to Doc. Lemmon's with a temporary filling in my tooth which made comfortable for the rest of the day. I then went up about an hour in the Library, the first time in since they reopened it. Joe. Waldick dropped the fish shanties yesterday. Beautiful day, cool wind.

Thursday November 12th

I had to go over home this morning to get a and as we forgot our meat yesterday I went on to Aunt's and got it. I helped Dad get his cider berry end and by the time I got home it was nearly and raining. It rained all the afternoon and the night. I took the head out of the barrel I got it and Mary washed it out as well as she I washed the dishes. As it was such a bad one sent me over to invite Mahel over for tea and We had a hot supper of roast mutton, Mahel

Friday November 13th

There has been a strong westerly gale all day with rain most of the time. I spent the day sorting apples. I went to get Darius' ready to send to her as soon as possible.
Mahel came back for dinner. Not much colder.

Saturday November 14th

I ploughed to-day but didn't get started very early this morning, however I got all the sod I had turned under and the stubble is too wet I am afraid, although I made one strike-out in the corn stubble back of the
