

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 5, 1870.

Frank drove me
down to the Hillside Square Station this morning.
I went down to Toronto soon after and came very heart not going on account of the train being so crowded.
Got down all right
and had a good look at the Exhibition. After or rather towards night I went back to Oakville to stay all night. Found the folks all well.
Had a pleasant visit at John Hill-iams, where I stayed all night. The Hilliams have all left Oakville except my Hiram & John.

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 6, 1870.

I went to Toronto
from Oakville this morning. First thing after getting there
I went in search of Bessie Scott. I found the place where she was staying but did not find her.
So I had to give it up after all. I had my dinner at the Hotel and afterwards went to the Fairground. Stayed
there until nearly five when I made tracks again for Crouse. I got to the Carn at the Square.
Stayed a while for Frank but as he did not come I left for the Suffrage Meeting & afterwards walked to Spring
