

Apr 9th 1873.

- Sun. 9. Lovely day bright and clear attended Church and Sabbath School, and spent the evening at Mrs. Neway's reading Salvages Lemoine
- Mon. 10. Another fine day until evening, it having the appearance of a storm
- Tue. 11. Mostly cloudy all day but look like rain at night.
- Wed. 12. Raining this morning, and continuing mostly all day
- Thu. 13. Raining ~~again~~ this morning but clearing off fine about 8 A.M. fine the rest of the day and quite warm, rather light tonight
- Fri. 14. Fine today but considerable colder than yesterday, sky heavily clouded at night
- Sat. 15. Snowing this morning and continuing all day long with heavy N.E. wind fall of snow 4 or 5 inches

Apr 16th 1873.

- Sun. 16. Bright clear day, but quite cold although the snow melted some spent the evening at Mrs. Grant's
- Mon. 17. Fine today, snow disappearing rapidly. Opened the factory this morning.
- Tue. 18. Fine but cool, manufactured the first cheese of the season
- Wed. 19. Fine today and quite warm more spring like than any time yet this season
- Thurs. Dull and cloudy and wind very high, commenced raining and hailing this afternoon, and at last ending in a very heavy rain
- Fri. 21. Drizzling rain most of the day, and thundering and raining hard some time during the night sounding up in a snow storm
- Sat. 22. Cloudy and high winds, some rain.