

Sept 20th 1892.

Tue. 20.

Most beautiful day, calm and clear, was with Billy Tankhorn at the residence of our Mr. Adoo we had a splendid time

Wed. 21.

Another fine day, quite a heavy frost last night was visiting at Mr. Alex Tankhorn's tonight.

Thurs. 22.

Raining a little this morning clearing up at about 8 o'clock fine and warm the balance of the day.

Fri. 23.

A light rain this morning fine the rest of the day went to Kingston tonight with Billy Tankhorn and just arrived home in time to save ourselves from a good ducking, a severe thunder storm having come up at that time

Sept 24th 1892.

Sat. 24.

fine today, after one of the most fearful storms that has visited us this season the lightning was something brightness and repetition the peals of thunder was also startling, today is very hot thermometer at 80 in the shade, close and muggy tonight.

Sun. 25.

Dull and foggy this morning but considerably cooler than yesterday, turning close and warm towards evening, was at Mr. Adoo's for tea, and went with Andy and Miss Barton to Zion Church while there, one of the most "frightful" Thunder storms I ever witnessed came up from the west, we remained
