

Wednesday, July 24

206 DAYS PAST

Thursday

160 TO COME

Syphilo-Dermo-Urologic Aphorisms.

Urinary suppression in infants is a condition that is so rare that, as a rule, it is advisable to exclude the probability of a mechanical obstacle to the urination; or, of a congenital deformity, by the passage of a soft rubber catheter. This exact method of determining the condition should never be forgotten.—Amer. Journ. of Derm.

Weather

Temp.

Warm

Maudie went to Aylmer
Alet and John was here for tea. John was cutting bottles. Got old
Mariah chod

Mariah 6